Jonathan Destler, Principal

Jonathan Destler has over 15 years experience in investor relations, capital markets transactions and business development. Jon leads Financial Profiles' Wall Street outreach activity and marketing strategies. He is directly involved in implementing investor and analyst outreach campaigns and arranging non-deal road shows for agency clients. He also plays a key role in working with Financial Profiles' practitioners to develop buy- and sell-side targeting strategies. Throughout his career, Jon has built extensive relationships with institutional investors, analysts and investment bankers. Leveraging these relationships and his capital markets knowledge, he provides Financial Profiles' clients access to new investor support, capital sources and real time market intelligence.

Prior to founding Financial Profiles, Jon was a senior vice president at Lippert/Heilshorn & Associates, a leading national investor relations firm. Previously Jon was a vice president at Financial Relations Board, the investor relations practice of the Interpublic Group of Companies.

Jon began his career as founder and head of Destler Services Inc., a New York-based consulting firm which assisted numerous emerging growth companies with investor relations and capital raises.
